GET DEAD SET.

ARE YOU DYING TO KNOW?

The Groundswell Project Australia, is calling on Australians to 'get dead set' around death and dying as part of its annual Dying to Know campaign. This year, the national campaign asks people of all ages and stages of life to prioritise compassionate conversations and 'get dead set' around the reality of death and dying - because it's going to happen to us all. It outlines simple steps people can take around end-of-life planning, which is personal and unique to everyone.

St George Community College is delighted to announce its collaboration with the Sutherland Shire Council and the South, Eastern Sydney Local Health District, delivering three Death Cafe Sessions at its Jannali Campus in the coming months as part of Dying to Know Day and beyond. These sessions involve cake, coffee and conversations and are FREE to attend via pre-booking.

WHAT HAPPENS AT THESE SESSIONS?

At a Death Cafe people, often strangers, gather to eat cake, drink coffee and discuss death. The objective is 'to increase awareness of death with a view to helping you make the most of your (finite) life'.

A Death Cafe is a group directed discussion of death with no agenda, objectives or themes. It is a discussion group rather than a grief support or counselling session.

The Death Cafes are offered:

- On a not for profit basis
- In an accessible, respectful and confidential space
- With no intention of leading people to any conclusion, product or course of action
- Alongside refreshing drinks and cake!

DEATH CAFE SESSION DETAILS:

From a whim to 2022 NSW Vocational Student of the Year

"I never thought I would be back in the classroom as a mum of toddler twins approaching 40. That is where I ended up in 2021 between COVID lockdowns."

When Casey found herself out of work during the COVID-19 pandemic, she boldly used the opportunity to pursue a TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training & Assessment with St George and Sutherland Community College (SGSCC).

Before the pandemic, Casey was balancing a well-established career and being a stay-at-home mum. Feeling unsure of herself and what her future held, Casey decided to undertake VET to formalise her experience into a nationally recognised qualification.

Casey reconnected with her love of learning and was such an exceptional student that she was offered a permanent trainer position with SGSCC.

Through her decision to undertaking further education as a busy mum, and with the support of her family, Casey has received: a formal qualification, an exciting career change, and a new lease on life.

"It has given me a new lease on life" that I haven't felt since my days on the retail shop floor and has truly cemented that training people, coaching them, and helping them grow, is where I find satisfaction."

Recognised for her love of learning and drive Casey was nominated and won the 2022 Southern and South Western Sydney Region Training Vocational Student Award.

Casey then advanced to the prestigious NSW Training Awards held at the Town Hall, Sydney, in September. Up against two equally amazing students, Mathew from the Illawarra & South East Region and Sara from the North Coast & Mid North Coast Region Casey won the 2022 NSW Vocational Student of the Year.

This journey of recognition didn't end there as Casey then represented NSW at the 2022 Australian Training Awards in late November, held in Adelaide. Every State and Territory had its own Vocational Student of the year present. The talent pool and journeys of each finalist demonstrated the value of Vocational Training in Australia. MySkills, YourSkills, Jobskills are pivotal for success.

The winner on the night was Caitlin Cook from Victoria who completed a Diploma in Nursing.

SGSCC CEO, Bernadette Mills proudly said after the event "our vocational student and trainer Casey missed out this year on the Australian Vocational Student of the Year award, however, to be 1 of 8 finalists is an amazing achievement and we are so proud of her" Casey is a winner for our state, region and College which is so important."

"This is the first time that SGSCC has been a national finalist so thank you Casey for being a wonderful advocate for our College."

"I would also like to congratulate Caitlin Cook and the other finalists on the night."

"Casey now enters an ambassadorial role as NSW Student of the Year in 2023. We wish her every success and we hope she enjoys every moment of this journey. You have truly earned it."
